HAD THEIR EXERCISES IN NO. 16 SCHOOL.

Miss Olmstead Said That This Year's Class at the Training School Con-Demonstrations of Their Methods of Imparting Knowledge - Ad- and views in the Selkirks, Alaska and dresses by Dr. Joslin, of the High School, and Others-Members of This Year's Class in Training

"The Public Teaching Day" of the Sefanton Training school was held yesterday afternoon at No. 16 school. The long hall in the unfinished top story was utilized on this occasion and was time being kept by a metronome which crowded by friends of the pupils. Mr. Jennings quoted Miss Olmstead, the director, as authority that this class When the golf ball, suspended by a contained the finest possible material string, was not in motion, the children and the most intelligent results of its hesitated as if at a loss to know what work. He wished they could all have must be done. Their work was greeted clergyman, "who think nothing of sending little Annie up the alley for a quart of ice cream on the Sabbath if it's a hot day. They'd ought to be ashamed to sin so before God."

The Sunday newspaper then came in for general condemnation because of its alleged demoralizing effect on Christians in distracting their attention from spiritual things and keeping them away rom church.

"Down our way," said one clergyman, the man of the house tumbles out of ed on Sunday morning and goes out in the front yard with just enough clothes to cover his nakedness to buy a Sunday paper. When he's read it it's too late to go to church and he passes it over to his wife, and when she's finished with it, it goes to the children. Instead of going to church at night the whole family leans over the back fence and talk with their next door neighbors about the latest missing link and Willie Astorbilt's new $45,000 automobile. Then before going to bed they feel a little likely 'One More Day's Work for Jesus.' That's a nice way to spend Sunday,

BLAZE IN RAYMOND COURT.

A small frame barn on Raymond between Spruce and Linden streets caught on fire in a mysterious manner yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock. An excited person ran to Penn and Lackawanna avenues and turned in an alarm from box 15 so that the firemen were considerably confused in their efforts to locate the blaze. The barn is owned by Carl Lorenz and occupied by Fred F. Lindner, the baker. It is situated in the midst of a miscellaneous collection of ramshackle dwellings and the firemen had some difficulty in keeping the fire under control.

The structure was practically destroyed and a large quantity of hay and wagons were taken out before the blaze made much headway. The damage done will amount to about $300.

A Much Talked, of Improvement.

The stir the New Jersey Central's recent announcement made in regard to hourly trains between New York and Philadelphia was far reaching. Very few cities can boast of such a schedule and the beauty of it is, that it's easily remembered-a train every hour on the even hour from 7 a.

The locomotives, cars and Pullman cars are the most modern, the roadbed is rock ballasted, and as only hard coal is used there is no smoke or cinders, Every train runs direct to Reading Terminal, Philadelphia, without change and many of them cover the distance in two hours. The Reading route by which the Philadelphia line is often known, is not only a short way to Philadelphia, but it is likewise the scenic route. This service goes into effect on May 18, but in no way does it impair the fast and elegant service of the Royal Blue line, which will run independently of the Philadelphia line.
